

A PERIMETRIC JIGSAW! Fit the answers in where they will go. The periphery (starting at top left and going clockwise) is the answer to:

Little girl somehow never having a yard of tea with her dragon (4,2,5,6,7)

Jerry dribbling - not unknown for egging on dogs (9)

Dance Queen at home with a dancer (9)

He's a spoilt one, barking "Break a leg!" (11)

O, a ruler can hold a novice in a young tree (7)

Make red hot coals with hanging to replace 'er (9)

Scan around in fashion to surpass (9)

Suffering got quite a few dirty (3-6)

Post sheep in the Netherlands? (5)

Dame is clued by papers, for example (4,5)

It could be argued she's coming out with a counter (9)

Improves violin's sound with break circles (9)

Type of omelette with roughly bridge-like properties? (7)

Judged to have attempted (5)

Live how you can't live, entirely (2,3)

Mournful shades of Gray? (7)

Caruso and choir composed a work in shades of grey? (11)

Lead me like a stony beach, very small or rare (11)

Annoyance at bite taken from sausage (5)

Digs heartlessly around headless circumnavigator who likes a whip round (11)

Remove obstacle to entering organisational lounge (5)

Smell a traveller, say (5)

Den's at our place (5)

A German might be in charge (7)

Solver that half made a child (5)